Teaching Assistant: Grant Morin

Lectures Tuesdays, 9:30-12:30 SSC 3028

Course material: There is no assigned textbook, but there will be online readings and videos.

Course Description: The forces reshaping global economic geography; fundamentals of spatial economics; principles of locational decisions; spatial interaction; growth of spatial economic systems; examples are taken from a variety of countries.

Objectives: This course introduces you to the economic geography of the world economy. A basic understanding of the geography inherent in the concepts of population, transportation, locational decisions and globalization is provided. Course format: The course is lecture based with class discussion. Lecture attendance is vital. 3 lecture hours.

Prerequisites: 1.0 course from Geography 1100, 1300A/B, 1400F/G, 1500F/G, 2131A/B, 2153A/B (taken after September 2012), or the former Geography 020E; Economics 1020, 1021A/B, 1022A/B; MOS 1021A/B, 1023A/B or the former MOS 1020A/B, or enrolment in any of the Globalization Studies modules. Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Evaluation

There will be 5 quizzes of about 40 minutes each. The quizzes may consist of short answer questions, fill in the blank or multiple choice questions or a combination of all three. Computer graded multiple choice is also possible. Quizzes may contain questions on any material covered in the course up to the date of the quiz.

Any computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams will be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

The quizzes may be given anytime at the instructor's discretion during the 3 hour class period.

- 1) 5 Quizzes at 19% each
- 2) Attendance and in class exercises 5%

Quizzes missed due to medical illness will be made up during 2 scheduled makeup quiz sessions outside of regular class hours. The first makeup will cover material addressed in quizzes 1 to 3, the second makeup will cover material from quizzes 4 and 5. The makeup quizzes will be short answer.

Quizzes will not be reevaluated after 2 weeks from the day the quiz was given.

In addition you are expected to attend the lectures. You can't learn the material if you aren't there.

You should also note that any marks in the course are considered preliminary until you receive your final mark from the Registrar. Adjustments of marks may be made before final submission to the Registrar.

Statement on Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic.../scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

In accordance with university policy, missed exams cannot be made up except on written medical grounds and notification prior to exam date.

Accommodation for Medical Illness

For UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness and a downloadable SMC see:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf

Downloadable Student Medical Certificate (SMC): <https://studentservices.uwo.ca> under the Medical Documentation heading

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counseling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department.

Statement on Use of Electronic Devices

Electronic devices may not be used during any portion of this course without the instructor's permission.

EXTENSIONS, LATE ASSIGNMENTS, PLAGIARISM, ADDS/DROPS, APPEALS

You are advised to read the course calendar to familiarize yourself with the University's regulations and procedures concerning grades, regulations, penalties and appeals ('relief').

Plagiarism is unacceptable and those who do so will be persecuted to the fullest extent allowed under the University's regulations. Please avoid this experience and do your own work.

The date of the final examination is set by the Office of the Registrar and once confirmed will not be changed. If you consider that you have grounds to write the final examination on an alternate date, you must follow the procedure established by the Dean's Office and complete the appropriate forms. The same holds for dropping the course.

Should you feel that your final grade in the course is biased, inaccurate or unfair, you do have the right to appeal your mark. Be aware that marks may be raised--as well as lowered--through an appeal process. Please refer to the Western Calendar 2017, prior to doing so. It is very much in your own interest to seek assistance and adjustments as early as possible, and always in advance of the event.

Statement on Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:

You should also note that any marks in the course are considered preliminary until you receive your final mark from the Registrar. Adjustments of marks may be made before final submission to the Registrar.

Western's commitment to accessibility

The University of Western Ontario is committed to achieving barrier free accessibility for persons studying, visiting and working at Western.

Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at 661-2111 x 82147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation.

Code of conduct: Students in geography are expected to conduct themselves in a polite and civil manner. Students are reminded of the University Code of Conduct for Students: <http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/board/code.pdf>

If you are having problems, SPEAK UP! I am more than happy to help you with difficulties you are having in the course. This help is conditional upon you doing your job. That is, you should read the text and study the slides before you come to see me. The session is much more fruitful if you have tried to understand the material first. I will not redo a class lecture because you didn't attend. Please attend the lectures, it makes everyone's life much easier.

Review and or read any material to be covered in a class before class. I assume you have done this when I present material.
